STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY
BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 12/12

The Ravens, Colts and Eagles are the only NFL teams to earn the playoffs each of the last three seasons, and Baltimore is the only franchise with postseason victories in those three years (2008, 2009 and 2010). Under Steve Bisciotti's leadership, the Ravens, who have made the NFL's postseason four of the last five years, advanced to the playoffs for a third consecutive season in 2010 for the first time in team history.

"It's a good accomplishment," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal."

The passionate Bisciotti, who is 51 and the second-youngest owner in the NFL (to Washington's Daniel Snyder - 47), bought a minority interest in the Ravens in 2000 from Art Modell and completed the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV championship team. Today, Steve's influence in the NFL continues to rise – he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcasting and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 12th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first three seasons with Harbaugh.

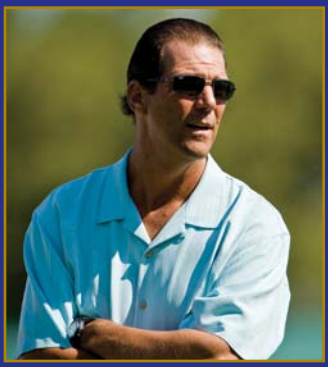
"I think leadership is difficult to define, but you can recognize leadership when you see it," Bisciotti says. "We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success. There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

In 2010, the Ravens tied Pittsburgh with a 12-4 record, the best mark in the AFC North. Baltimore then dominated the Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium with a 30-7 victory in the Wild Card round. In 2009, the Ravens completed a 9-7 regular season campaign and became the first team to win a playoff game at New England (33-14) since 1978. The 2008 Ravens earned an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to, or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

– Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens



"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

– Former Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED NAMED STEVE BISCIOTTI ONE OF THE FIVE BEST OWNERS IN THE NFL:

"Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field." – May, 2009 of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State University with a degree in liberal arts in 1982, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (he was 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees. Starting with two employees and two clients, Bisciotti and Davis produced $1.5 million in sales in the first year.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest privately-held staffing firm in the United States. The company, which is based just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, has over 8,000 internal employees and 90,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group, which, like Steve, does little self promotion or publicity, places employees in positions from engineers to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Until he bought the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level. In fact, it wasn't even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm okay if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, quietly is dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing, boating and is devoted to University of Maryland athletics, especially the men's basketball team. He and his wife, Renée (Foote), are the parents of two sons, Jason, who recently earned a master's in business, and Jack, who graduated in August with a degree in sports and entertainment management. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens' training complex. The family lives in Millersville, MD.

Bisciotti is pronounced Bih-SHAH-tee.

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts' players if I could wear their helmets."

ART MODELL

MINORITY OWNER

BORN: 6/23/25, BROOKLYN, NY

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 46/16

Art Modell – much like Steve Bisciotti – embodies the spirit of a true American success story. Both men have been described as bold, competitive, compassionate and highly-approachable entrepreneurs – generally, a rare combination of qualities for men who have risen to their level of accomplishment.

In April of 2004, Art finalized the sale of the World Champion Baltimore Ravens to Bisciotti. Also in 2004, Art was a semifinalist for that year's Hall of Fame class. He was one of 15 finalists for the Canton NFL Hall of Fame in 2001 and a semifinalist for the classes of 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Modell purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was an unprecedented price of $4 million in 1961, and three decades later, in February of 1996, he brought an NFL franchise back to Baltimore. For Art and his club, the move was not an easy one to make – and it was not easy for the team's fans to see their team go. Knowing this, Modell did not hesitate to leave the fans of Cleveland a legacy. He announced that he would give the name "Browns" to Cleveland for a future team. He also left the team's colors (orange and brown) and the rich and storied 49-year history (1946-1995).

"I believe Art belongs in the Hall of Fame. I don't think I know a person who has done more for the league than Modell, especially through television."

– Wellington Mara
former owner, NY Giants, 2002, deceased

In his 43 seasons of full ownership of the Browns and the Ravens, more than half of Art's teams were in the playoffs. Modell won two NFL championships, 1964: 27-0 (over the Colts); and in 2000, 34-7 (vs. the NY Giants). Three other teams (1965, 1968 and 1969) played in NFL title games, and three more teams (1986, 1987 and 1989) lost memorable AFC Championship battles – all against John Elway and the Denver Broncos. Ten other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season's final week with a chance to make the postseason.

Modell was the only elected NFL president in league history, serving a term from 1967-69. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Vince Lombardi and Jim Finks, both NFL Hall of Famers. Modell may be most noted for his tenure as the NFL's broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports television.

Art's key career highlights include:

- Chairman of the Owners Labor Committee (1968), which successfully negotiated the NFL's first players' collective bargaining agreement.
- Served on the NFL-AFL Merger Committee, breaking the impasse for realignment of the two leagues by moving the Browns to the AFC.
- Worked closely with then-Commissioner Pete Rozelle to establish NFL Films and became its first chairman.
- In 1970, Art was an important negotiator with ABC to launch Monday Night Football and volunteered to host the first game in Cleveland. (The Browns won, 31-21, over the NY Jets.)

PERSONAL: In 1943, Modell joined the Air Force …Attended New Ultrecht (Brooklyn, NY) HS… He and his wife, Patricia, are the parents of John and David and have six grandchildren… The Modells, residents of Cockeysville, MD, are active in our Baltimore community...The couple has donated millions of dollars to a variety of charities, most notably, the SEED School, a boarding school being developed in Baltimore for disadvantaged youth, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Kennedy Krieger Institute, St. Vincent's Center, a home for abused children, and the House Of Ruth…Modell has received numerous awards and honors, including the Generous Heart Award from the Dr. Ben Carson Scholarship Foundation, given annually for excellence in the community.

OZZIE NEWSOME

GENERAL MANAGER & EXECUTIVE V.P.

COLLEGE: ALABAMA
BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SCHOALS, AL
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 34/16
(13 PLAYING / 21 FRONT OFFICE)

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's unfair to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. That's because, in all reality, he blazed the trail – one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing for the University of Alabama. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for the Crimson Tide under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

- Don Banks, SportsIllustrated.com

"As a player, he was known as the Wizard of Oz, a Hall of Fame tight end who was hard to stop. As a drafter, he's a master of finding the right players."

- John Clayton, ESPN

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since broken those records).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 23 Pro Bowls since then, each player is considered a likely Hall of Famer. Ogden, who retired in June of 2008, could become the first Raven ever elected to Canton. Fittingly, he would join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

"Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, player personnel director Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

– Adam Schein, FoxSports.com

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 15 drafts (1996-2010), Baltimore selected 16 first-rounders who have earned a total of 46 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, LB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis and LB Terrell Suggs) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis has twice been named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap, chosen 31st, went to two Pro Bowls; S Ed Reed, the 24th pick, has been tabbed an All-Star seven times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 13 players who have earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, who signed as a rookie free agent in 2002, Baltimore has produced 14 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 15 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 17 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," which is a group that includes members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft. Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club." "A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels: Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals).

"[Ravens] players believe, and that's the beauty of it," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we've always talked about is we don't want to coach effort. And that's the thing – we don't. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

Newsome's motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie's not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens' weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

"By being around the coaches and players out at practice," Newsome states, "and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I'd like the makeup of our football team."

A year-by-year look at Newsome's career:

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/4

John Harbaugh is historically good.

He's the only coach in NFL history to take over a team with a losing record (5-11) the previous season and then go to and win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons as head coach. (Barry Switzer did the same with the Cowboys, but he took over a defending Super Bowl champion.)

With Harbaugh at the Ravens' helm, Baltimore is the only team to have won at least one playoff game in each of the past three postseasons – all coming on the road. Including playoffs, the Ravens are 36-19 in the Harbaugh Era (2008-10), producing the NFL's third-most total victories since his Baltimore arrival. (Pittsburgh and Indianapolis each have 38 victories.)

"Harbs" has guided the Ravens to the playoffs for three consecutive seasons for the first time in Ravens history. Baltimore produced 32 regular season wins during this span, tied (New Orleans) for fifth most in the NFL. Harbaugh has also compiled a 4-3 playoff record.

In Harbaugh's initial season, the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at the AFC's top-seeded Tennessee, 13-10. Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens, 23-14, in the AFC title matchup. In 2009, Baltimore dominated at New England, 33-14, in the Wild Card game before dropping a 20-3 contest at Super Bowl-bound Indianapolis in the Divisional Round. (The victory at New England was the Patriots' first playoff loss at home since 1978.)

> "I'm a football coach. That's what I wanted to be, and that's what I am. I'm excited to be the head coach of the Ravens. It's a big job that provides the opportunity to work with some outstanding people. I grew up as a coach's son, and I understand the core and fundamental principles that define a great football team. At the heart of football are three foundations: first is the team, second is the team and third is the team. We'll stick with that from beginning to end. We will take care of one another. We will stand shoulder to shoulder. We will push each other to the highest levels. We will lift each other up. Our style of play will be tough, fast, physical and smart."

After earning a 12-4 mark in 2010, the Ravens won at Kansas City (30-7) in the Wild Card playoff. Baltimore then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl.

That first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following that campaign established a new league standard in this same category. With the 13 total victories in '08, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco). In 2010, Harbaugh and Flacco once again set an NFL record when they became the first quarterback-head coach duo to start their NFL careers at the same time and lead a team to the postseason in each of their first three seasons.

Steve Bisciotti and John Harbaugh have helped lead the Ravens to three consecutive playoff seasons for the first time in franchise history.

Maintaining their strong defensive tradition, the Ravens have finished the past three seasons as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed). Those three years rank as the best scoring "D" span in team history. (Baltimore has also ranked in the top 10 in total defense eight straight seasons, producing second-, third- and 10th-overall rankings, respectively, from 2008-10.)

The Ravens' offense has also experienced successes during the Harbaugh Era. In 2010, Flacco became the franchise's all-time leading passer, finishing with career highs in passing yards (3,622) and TDs (25). Baltimore also ranked 16th in NFL scoring, averaging 22.3 points per game. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, while setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). In Harbaugh's first season in Baltimore (2008), the Ravens built a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg).

Impressively, the Ravens' top three records for fewest turnovers in a season have all occurred during Harbaugh's tenure. In 2010, the Ravens set a franchise single-season record for fewest turnovers (20), breaking the previous mark of 21 from John's first season in 2008. Baltimore also threw a franchise-low 10 INTs in 2010.

Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he states. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels, and we want to stay there." His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he adds.

Despite his early head-coaching success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best," Harbaugh says.

Harbaugh, who established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches, is the third head coach in team history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). Coach Harbaugh arrived in Baltimore with 24 years of pro and college coaching experience, including the previous 10 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the Eagles' special teams coach from 1998 through 2006 and headed Philly's secondary in 2007.

He was originally hired by then-head coach Ray Rhodes and, subsequently, was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999. Prior to hiring him, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic Harbaugh, who had never been a head coach nor an NFL offensive or defensive coordinator.

"Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We're totally confident we picked the right person."

Harbaugh's Philadelphia special teams were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, Philly's units finished in the top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, the Eagles ranked No. 1 according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four years (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams units from 29th to first in the league. In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington.

With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the top two net punting averages (38.4 in '05 and 37.4 in '04) in Eagles history. Under coach Harbaugh, 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His brother Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was named the San Francisco 49ers' head coach in January 2011. (Their sister Joani is married to Indiana basketball coach Tom Crean.)

Among John's 27 years of coaching is a two-year stint as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1995-96). (The Bearcats finished 6-5 both seasons.) John coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the college level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the TEs at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried.

While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs and was also the recruiting coordinator. Over eight years, he recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR avg. in '95) and the second-ranked returner (Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR avg. in '93). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the DBs coach/special teams coordinator under Cam Cameron, the Ravens' current offensive coordinator, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the DBs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He's a board member for the Port Discovery Children's Museum and a significant contributor to All Pro Dads, along with numerous Baltimore-area events and charities.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He then earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, his wife, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown, MD. Also a willing volunteer, Ingrid contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House.

John Harbaugh delivers a game ball to General Raymond Odierno, whom Harbaugh met while on the USO Tour in 2009. General Odierno, who is the new Army Chief of Staff, has given motivational speeches to both Ravens players and staff members.

JERRY ROSBURG

ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.

COLLEGE: NORTH DAKOTA STATE
BORN: 11/24/55, FAIRMONT, MN
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 11/4

Jerry Rosburg, who joined the Ravens in 2008 as their special teams coordinator, added the assistant head coach role in Jan. 2009. The 33-year coaching veteran has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore. The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular in 2010: K Billy Cundiff, who earned his first Pro Bowl, tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line), and P Sam Koch, a Pro Bowl first alternate, was second in the NFL with 39 punts inside the 20, just three short of the all-time NFL record. Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr), and the team ranked third in the league in opponent average starting field position (27.2-yard line). In the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, the 2010 Ravens were ranked eighth in the NFL, up from 18th the year before. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In 2009, Rosburg's unit ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.2), also setting a franchise record. In 2008, special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl, and Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. In his year in Atlanta, the Rosburg-led Falcons' special teams units held a number of top 10 rankings. Also, under his leadership, the Browns' special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in Gosselin's report. In their first year with Rosburg as their mentor, Koch (2008) and Atlanta's Michael Koenen (2007) each tallied their career-best gross and net punting averages.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) Ravens special teams units have been impressive under Rosburg's direction...K Billy Cundiff earned his first Pro Bowl in 2010, and special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl in 2008. 2010: Cundiff tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line)...P Sam Koch was the Pro Bowl first alternate, ranking second in the AFC with a 39.2 net punting average...Koch also tied a team mark with 39 punts inside the 20...Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr). 2009: Set a franchise record, ranking second in the NFL, by posting a 26.2-yard average on KORs...Also ranked fifth in the league in average starting field position (31.8)...Coverage units ranked fourth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and limited foes to an average starting line of 26.9 (second best in NFL). 2008: Koch set a Ravens' single-season record with the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9)...Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second with 34 punts inside the 20...He was ninth in gross punting average (45.0), which is also a franchise-season record.

2007: (with Atlanta) Under Rosburg, the kickoff team finished second in the NFL in opponents average starting field position (25.5)…Falcons KOR team was sixth in the league in KOR average

In addition, Baltimore, which set a team record with only 22 turnovers in 2010, has committed only 63 turnovers, tied for the NFL's third-fewest, since 2008. The team's 2008 first-round draft pick, QB Joe Flacco, became Baltimore's all-time leading passer in 2010 (878 of 1,416 for 10,206 yards, 60 TDs and an 87.9 rating). Among starting NFL QBs, Flacco is second (Peyton Manning, 38) with 36 wins (including playoffs) since 2008. DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: WYOMING
BORN: 10/2/60, BOULDER, CO
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 10/4

Chuck Pagano, who spent three seasons as the Ravens' secondary coach, was named defensive coordinator in January, 2011. Pagano, Baltimore's fifth defensive coordinator in team history, leads a veteran group that finished 2010 as the NFL's 10th-ranked unit. The vaunted defense has finished as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) each of the past three seasons (2008-10). Baltimore has given up a league-low total of 16.1 points per game and permitted only 80 TDs (tied with Pit. for NFL best) in the last three years. As the team's secondary coach, Pagano led a defensive backfield that had to adjust to a number of injuries over the past three years, including a significant loss of seven-time Pro Bowl S Ed Reed, who started 2010 on the PUP list. Even after missing the first six games, Reed still led the league with 8 INTs in only 10 games. In Pagano's first season with the Ravens (2008), the team led the NFL with 26 INTs, including Reed's NFL-high 9 picks. Reed, the league's only unanimous (50 votes) All-Pro in 2008, was also coached by Pagano at the University of Miami. Reed grabbed a Miami career-record 21 INTs and blocked four punts in his four-year career under Pagano. Chuck coached the NFL's No. 1 pass defense at Oakland in 2006 and mentored outstanding secondaries in Cleveland and Miami, prior to joining the Ravens.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: Even though he missed his first six games on PUP list, S Ed Reed still led the NFL with 8 INTs, earning his seventh Pro Bowl invite...Baltimore's defense, which was tied for eighth with 19 INTs, finished No. 10 overall (318.9 ypg). 2009: Guided an injury-depleted secondary to a No. 8-overall ranking (tied) against the pass (207.3 ypg)...Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg), the seventh-straight top six finish...Reed earned his sixth Pro Bowl and added to his 13 career TDs by scoring on a 52-yard INT return vs. Cin. (10/11)...Defensive backs tallied 16 of the team's 22 INTs and Baltimore's turnover ratio (+10) was fourth best in the NFL. 2008: Secondary ranked No. 2 against the pass (175.5 ypg), improving dramatically from a No. 20 finish in 2007...Unit allowed only 179.7 yards per game... Reed was the NFL's only unanimous All-Pro selection...He led the NFL with 9 INTs and scored three defensive TDs, plus another (64-yard INT-TD) in the Wild Card victory at Miami (1/4/09)... Defense finished No. 2 overall (261.1 ypg).

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

"Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, player personnel director Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead." – Adam Schein, FoxSports.com

"This team wins because it drafts well. Steve Bisciotti is a great owner because he lets his guys do their job. It's a great organization." – Mel Kiper, ESPN (April, 2010)

"If I ever get a chance to come back and coach, I'm going to call Ozzie Newsome to make all of my picks." – Jon Gruden, ESPN (April, 2010)

"The Ravens are successful, because they ignore needs to take the best player available. There's a reason the Ravens are always picking in the bottom half of the draft. They win and are in the playoffs each year." – Todd McShay, ESPN (April, 2010)

"If I had to pick one guy to draft a team, I'd take Ozzie Newsome. He's the best I've seen since Ron Wolf. No matter where the Ravens draft, a good player seems to fall to them."
– Rick Gosselin, The Dallas Morning News (September, 2008)

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time." – Don Banks, SI.com

"Newsome and owner Steve Bisciotti have an excellent relationship, and Newsome figures to be running the Ravens' drafts for years to come. The Ravens' track record of draft success is no secret, and it's the envy of many clubs that are low on blue-chip players."
– ProFootballWeekly.com (January, 2008)

He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens prior to their inaugural season in Baltimore.

Koppelman serves on the advisory board of the Michael A. Fiorelli Foundation for Esophageal Cancer Awareness. Fiorelli, who passed away from cancer in 2007, was Koppelman's colleague at both the Orioles and Ravens. Baker is also a member of the St. Paul's School (Baltimore) Alumni Board.

Larry also produces "Game Day" for the RavensVision high definition video boards at M&T Bank Stadium during Ravens home games.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular new high definition videoboards in 2010, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events.

Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted a U2 concert this past June, Monster Jam in July, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, and international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan in 2009 and Manchester City and Inter Milan in 2010.

U2 360° TOUR ROCKS M&T BANK STADIUM

On June 22, 2011, the world-renowned group U2 played to a full-capacity crowd of 75,000 at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region were treated to a show that was dubbed as the "Tour of the Year" when the legendary Irish band rocked Charm City with its 360° World Tour.

"It's very exciting for the Ravens to be part of a group that helped bring U2 to Baltimore," team president Dick Cass stated. "This was a great event for M&T Bank Stadium, Baltimore and the State of Maryland. Downtown was certainly alive on June 22 and the days surrounding the concert."

With a cylindrical video system of interlocking LED panels and a steel structure rising 150 feet from the floor over a massive stage with rotating bridges, the band truly created an intimate 360° experience for concert goers. Long-time U2 show director Willie Williams worked again with architect Mark Fisher (ZooTV, PopMart, Elevation and Vertigo) to create an innovative 360° design, which afforded an unobstructed view for the entire audience.

OWINGS MILLS TRAINING FACILITY

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – all Bermuda Grass – at their Owings Mills training facility.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Shaw Sportexe "Momentum 51" turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

KaBOOM! PLAYGROUND BUILD

On June 16, 2011, the Baltimore Ravens teamed with local organizations and community members to build a new playground at German Park. More than 300 volunteers from the Reservoir Hill Improvement Council and Baltimore Housing, organizers from KaBOOM! and Ravens personnel worked together to construct the playground in less than six hours.

The new playground, which was based on drawings created by children, included slides, swings and a serenity garden. Thanks to the efforts of all the volunteers, the community will now have a safe place for more than 1,200 children to play. The build was made possible by the Ravens All Community Team Foundation and KaBOOM!, a national nonprofit dedicated to saving play.

RAVENS ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The Ravens All Community Team (ACT) is a partnership among the Ravens organization, the players and members of the corporate community. Title sponsor, M&T Bank, joins additional Baltimore corporations, as the All Community Team provides financial and volunteer support to many Ravens community service projects. ACT volunteers came together in 2010 to assist in several community efforts, including the Earth Day event (right), Solo Gibbs Park renovation and Ravens Family Food & Funds Drive.

RAVENS GO GREEN

The Ravens' Earth Day 2011 service project was an extension of the organization's continuing efforts to go green. Close to 75 volunteers renovated the Warner Street section of the Gwynns Falls Trail, a historic recreation corridor in Baltimore. To reduce the organization's carbon footprint, team efforts have significantly increased and adjustments have been made at both the Ravens' training facility and M&T Bank Stadium. Such initiatives include a recycling program (right), semiannual environmental clean-up projects and energy conservation practices.

GRIDIRON HALLOWEEN PARTY

Co-hosted by Todd Heap and Michael Oher, the 11th annual Gridiron Halloween Party benefited Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, with all proceeds donated toward training and employment programs. The co-hosts were joined by additional players, including Joe Flacco (trio at right), who sported a Jersey Shore-inspired haircut complete with an outline of America's Garden State shaved into the back of his head. Over the past 11 years, the partnership between Goodwill and the Ravens has raised over $1 million.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

Annually, the Ravens host a football clinic aligned with Hispanic Heritage Month (9/15–10/15) and Nickelodeon's Worldwide Day of Play. In 2010, Ravens players demonstrated to nearly 150 predominantly-Hispanic children the fundamentals of football. There were appearances by Ravens cheerleaders and Poe, festive music, and each participant received a t-shirt, football and healthy snack pack. One lucky participant was selected to be the tee kid at the Ravens' designated Hispanic Heritage Month game.

CHEERLEADERS AND RMH CHARITIES

The Ravens Cheerleaders select a specific organization to support throughout a season-long community relationship. In 2010, the group chose the Ronald McDonald House, an organization that offers a loving home-away-from-home to families needing to be near their seriously ill or injured children while they're being treated at Baltimore's world renowned hospitals. The cheerleaders opted to host activity events twice a month for the residents, including game night, arts and crafts, dessert and holiday celebrations.

PERSONNEL YOUTH FOOTBALL CLINIC

At the first-year Ravens Personnel Youth Football Camp, director of player personnel Eric DeCosta was joined by colleagues (director of pro personnel Vincent Newsome, at right) to help equip student-athletes from area middle school flag teams with football skills and valuable life lessons. The youth were guided through a series of offensive and defensive skills stations and, as part of the training, Ravens director of player development and former tackle Harry Swayne spoke to the group on his experience in the NFL, goal setting and financial planning.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Ravens players take part in close to 25 different events during the holiday season. From the defensive line collecting funds for a special gift-giving celebration to events hosted by veterans Ray Lewis (Thanksgiving, at right), Derrick Mason and Ed Reed, virtually every player is in our community at a crucial time. Also, through a partnership with the Maryland Food Bank and Giant Food, the Ravens raise funds and collect food to support families in need.

DOMINANT DT FORCE

One of the NFL's most disruptive forces, DT Haloti Ngata was named to his second Pro Bowl (as a starter) in 2010. Perhaps the NFL's most athletic DT, Ngata stops the run (328 career tackles, including 11 in Week 4's win at Pittsburgh), rushes the passer (12 career sacks) and even drops into coverage (3 career INTs). He has also seen time as a FB in Ravens goal-line situations.

Baltimore has a history of strong run defense, and with Ngata's help the past five seasons, has upheld its stout legacy on the ground:

WR ANQUAN BOLDIN
AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 3)
Boldin became the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions (98 games), while leading the team with 8 catches for 142 yards and 3 TDs in the 24-17 victory over the Browns. Amazingly, it was Boldin's first-ever Offensive Player of the Week award.

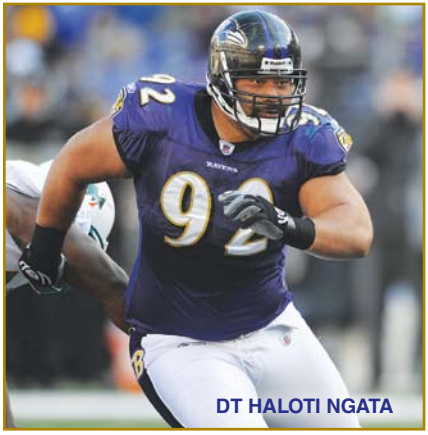
K BILLY CUNDIFF
Pro Bowl (Starter - 1st selection) / All-Pro (AP)
PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team
PFW Golden Toe
Sports Illustrated Mid-Season All-Pro Team (Peter King)
Cundiff was spectacular with his kickoffs in 2010, producing an NFL-best 40 touchbacks on 79 boots. His 50.6% TBs mark also ranked as the league's best, while only 38 of his kicks were returned. He added a career-high 117 points.

G BEN GRUBBS
Pro Bowl (1st Alternate)
Grubbs, who for the second-straight year was named as a Pro Bowl first alternate, turned in another solid season, starting all 16 games at LG. Joe Flacco set career highs in passing yards (3,622), touchdowns (25) and a 93.6 QB rating.

P SAM KOCH
Pro Bowl (1st Alternate)
Koch finished second in the NFL with a career-high and franchise-record-tying 39 punts inside the 20 (Kyle Richardson in 1999). He punted 81 times for 3,530 yards (43.6 avg.), ranking second in the AFC with a 39.2 net average.

LB RAY LEWIS
Pro Bowl (Starter) - 12th Invite / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)
Sports Illustrated All-Pro (Peter King)
Lewis earned his 12th Pro Bowl invite after leading the team with 145 tackles, 4 PD, 3 FRs, 2 FFs and 2 INTs, including one for a TD that sealed the victory at Carolina (11/21). Baltimore's defense finished in the top 10 in the NFL for the eighth consecutive season.

DT HALOTI NGATA
Pro Bowl (Starter) - 2nd Selection / All-Pro (AP)
PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team / Sporting News All-Pro
Sports Illustrated All-Pro (Peter King)
SI Mid-Season Defensive Player of the Year (Peter King)
AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 9)
The Ravens' key cog on the D-line, Ngata earned his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl in 2010. Often double-teamed, he tallied 65 tackles, a career-high 5.5 sacks (tied for second in AFC among DTs), a career-high-tying 5 PD and 1 FR. Thanks in part to Ngata's efforts, the Ravens have produced a top 5 run defense in five consecutive seasons.



DT HALOTI NGATA

K BILLY CUNDIFF

DE CORY REDDING
USA Today All-Joe Team
An important offseason free agent pickup, Redding played in 15 games (11 starts) and posted 38 tackles (29 solo), 3 sacks (-21 yards), a career-high 4 PD and his first-career INT. The fourth-quarter INT clinched the 30-24 victory over New Orleans (12/19).

WR/RS DAVID REED
AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 14)
Reed earned Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a franchise-record 103-yard kickoff return for a TD in the victory at Houston (12/13). The rookie also led the NFL with a 29.3 kickoff return average.

S ED REED
Pro Bowl (Starter) - 7th Selection / All-Pro (AP)
PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team / Sporting News All-Pro
AFC Defensive Player of the Month (December)
AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 16)
Reed earned his seventh Pro Bowl nod after leading the NFL with 8 INTs, despite missing the first six games of the season on the PUP list (hip). His 183 INT return yards also led the league, and the three multi-INT games gave him 11 in his career (most among active players). In his nine-year career (2002-10), Reed has earned three Defensive Player of the Month awards and four Defensive Player of the Week awards.

RB RAY RICE
AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 15)
FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 15)
Rice led the Ravens with a career-high 307 rushing attempts for 1,220 rushing yards, becoming Baltimore's No. 2 all-time rusher. He produced the NFL's third-most yards from scrimmage (1,776) and was the only NFL player with at least 250 touches not to fumble in 2010. Rice's 63 receptions (for 556 yards) were second on the team. He earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his monster game in the win over New Orleans (12/19): Rice tallied a career-high 233 yards from scrimmage (153 rushing and 80 receiving).

OLB TERRELL SUGGS
Pro Bowl - 4th Selection
AFC Defensive Player of the Month (November)
Suggs, the Ravens' No. 2 career sacks leader (68.5) and all-time sack yardage king (519), earned his fourth Pro Bowl in 2010. His team-leading 11 sacks tied for 10th most in the NFL, and after four sacks in November, Suggs earned his first-career Player of the Month award.

G/T MARSHAL YANDA
Sports Illustrated All-Pro (Peter King)
The versatile and reliable Yanda started all 16 games at right tackle after an injury to T Jared Gaither required him to move from his natural guard position. Along with the rest of the offensive line, Yanda protected QB Joe Flacco, who set career highs with 3,622 passing yards, 25 TDs and a 93.6 QB rating.

The Ravens spoiled the grand opening of the Jets' New Meadowlands Stadium with a 10-9 victory on Monday Night Football. Baltimore took a 7-6 halftime lead on RB Willis McGahee's 1-yard touchdown plunge – his 30th score as a Raven – with six seconds left in the second quarter. K Billy Cundiff's 25-yard field goal in the third quarter provided the winning points. The Ravens' defense was stout throughout the game, limiting the Jets to 3 Nick Folk field goals (23, 28 and 48 yards). Baltimore's Ray Lewis and Co. held New York to 176 yards (80 yards passing). The Jets converted just 1 of 11 third-down attempts, while the Ravens were a respectable 11-of-19. The Ravens held the Jets to a New York franchise-tying-low 6 first downs. WR Anquan Boldin, playing his first game with the Ravens, caught 7 passes for 110 yards, producing the 28th 100-yard game of his career. TE Todd Heap, who made a spectacular diving catch for a 35-yarder in the fourth quarter, grabbed 6 for 72 more yards. QB Joe Flacco completed 20 of 38 passes for 248 yards. New York committed 14 penalties, including 10 in the first half, to the Ravens' five infractions. Baltimore held the ball 38:32 to the Jets' 21:28 and limited New York to 176 total yards, including 60 through the air, which ranks as the second lowest in Ravens franchise history (55 vs. Was. on 10/10/04).

GAME 2 • BENGALS 15, RAVENS 10

Baltimore (1-1) Cincinnati (1-1)

Sunday, September 19, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati

Weather: 78°, Cloudy, Wind W 1 mph • Attendance 64,071 • Time 3:07

Despite holding the Bengals without a touchdown, the Ravens dropped a 15-10 decision at Paul Brown Stadium. The Ravens' offense managed just 1 TD in this hard-fought battle that was not decided until the final minutes of the fourth quarter. Baltimore QB Joe Flacco had a difficult day, throwing 4 interceptions while completing 17 of 39 passes for 154 yards. Two of Flacco's INTs led to field goals, and 2 came in the last five minutes of the game. K Mike Nugent provided all of the Bengals' points on FGs of 36, 30, 46, 38 and 25 yards. After Cincinnati took a 6-0 halftime advantage, the Ravens grabbed a 7-6 third-quarter lead on a Flacco-to-WR Derrick Mason 31-yard TD pass. Nugent put the Bengals back on top at the end of that quarter, 9-7. Baltimore K Billy Cundiff's 38-yard FG with 5:46 left in the game gave the Ravens a 10-9 lead. RB Ray Rice finished the game with 87 yards on 16 carries. Dating back to the Divisional playoff game in Indianapolis (1/16/10), Baltimore's defense has gone 10 straight quarters without giving up a touchdown, also limiting Cincinnati to 3-of-18 (17%) on third down. Lewis had a game-high 10 tackles and posted career sack number 37.5.

Behind 3 QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin touchdown passes, the Ravens stopped the Browns, 24-17, at M&T Bank Stadium. Flacco, who completed 22 of 31 passes for 262 yards, threw a pair of TD tosses to Boldin in the first half when Baltimore took a 14-10 lead. The final Flacco/Boldin score put the Ravens ahead (21-17) in the fourth quarter. Boldin, who, on his second catch, became the fastest player to reach 600 career receptions (98 games) in NFL history, finished the game with 8 catches for 142 yards. TE Todd Heap (46 yards), WR Derrick Mason (30) and RB Ray Rice (16) each caught 4 passes. Rice also added 80 yards on 15 carries. The Browns, behind the bruising running of RB Peyton Hillis, hung with the Ravens all game. Hillis rushed 22 times for 144 yards and scored the first touchdown of the season against the Ravens' defense with a 1-yard blast at the end of the first half. For Cleveland, QB Seneca Wallace completed 18 of 24 passes for 141 yards, including a 1-yard TD to TE Benjamin Watson. Cleveland's touchdown with 13 seconds remaining in the first half ended the Ravens' consecutive quarter streak of not allowing a TD at 11 quarters, which tied a team record from the 2000 campaign.

GAME 4 • RAVENS 17, STEELERS 14

Baltimore (3-1) Pittsburgh (3-1)

Sunday, October 3, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 52°, Cloudy, Wind NE 5 mph • Attendance 64,729 • Time 2:55

QB Joe Flacco's 18-yard TD pass to WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh with 32 seconds left in the game sealed a come-from-behind 17-14 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh had taken a 14-10 lead on RB Rashard Mendenhall's 7-yard TD sprint with 6:52 left in the contest. Baltimore then drove to the Steelers' 2-yard line and failed on a fourth-down Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin end zone attempt. The Ravens forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back for their decisive drive with 1:08 left in the game. The Steelers' effort at a game-winning or tying charge was stopped when LB Ray Lewis, who led the team with 13 tackles, intercepted QB Charlie Batch with 18 seconds left in the fourth quarter. The Ravens took a 10-7 halftime lead on a 9-yard RB Willis McGahee TD run and a 33-yard K Billy Cundiff FG. Mendenhall's 1-yard TD in the first quarter gave Pittsburgh a 7-0 early lead. Flacco completed 24 of 37 for 256 yards, including 7 passes to Boldin and 6 to WR Derrick Mason, who led the team with 80 receiving yards. Baltimore's "D" limited the Steelers to 210 yards. DT Haloti Ngata added a career-high 11 tackles and a sack in the victory, which was the first for the Ravens in Pittsburgh since 2006.

RB Ray Rice ran for 2 TDs and 133 yards in the Ravens' convincing 31-17 victory over the Broncos at M&T Bank Stadium. Despite being stopped on fourth-and-goal from the Denver 1 on the opening drive of the game, the Ravens jumped to a 17-0 second-quarter lead on a 1-yard QB Joe Flacco dive, a 1-yard Rice TD and a 37-yard Billy Cundiff field goal. QB Kyle Orton's 42-yard bomb to WR Brandon Lloyd with 48 seconds left in the second quarter made the score 17-7 at the half. Two six-minute-plus drives leading to another Rice 1-yard TD and a 30-yard RB Willis McGahee TD sprint gave Baltimore a 31-10 fourth-quarter advantage. The Ravens rushed for 233 yards, compared to Denver's 39, while Baltimore's offense kept the ball 36:17 to the Broncos' 23:43. McGahee added 67 rush yards, and Flacco completed 14 of 25 passes for 196 yards. Orton was 23-of-38 for 314 with 2 TD throws to Lloyd – the second for 44 yards with 35 seconds left in the game. With the 4 rushing TDs, Baltimore improved to 10-0 when rushing for at least 3 TDs in team history, and the 233 rushing yards ranked 10th most in franchise history. The Ravens also had a franchise-record 17 rushing first downs and improved to 5-0 all time against Denver in Baltimore.

Sunday, October 17, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough

Weather: 57°, Sunny, Wind WNW 14 mph • Attendance 68,756 • Time 3:41

A fourth-quarter 20-10 lead was not enough for the Ravens when they dropped a 23-20 overtime decision at New England. K Stephen Gostkowski's 35-yard FG with 1:56 left in OT gave the Ravens the loss. Gostkowski's 24-yarder with 1:51 left in regulation had tied the game at 20. Baltimore led 10-7 at the half after a 26-yard K Billy Cundiff FG and a QB Joe Flacco-to-TE Todd Heap 16-yard TD pass. RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis' 2-yard run produced NE's first-half TD. A 25-yard Flacco TD toss to WR Anquan Boldin gave the Ravens a 17-7 third-quarter lead. After exchanging FGs, Baltimore owned the 20-10 fourth-quarter advantage. A 5-yard QB Tom Brady throw to WR Deion Branch brought the Pats within 3 points with 11:02 left in regulation. Flacco completed 27 of 35 passes for 285 yards (119.3 rating), while Brady, who was intercepted twice, was 27-of-44 for 292. WR Derrick Mason caught 8 passes for 100 yards, and RB Ray Rice rushed 28 times for 88 more. Rice tallied his 17th-career 100-yard scrimmage day, his third in 2010, while Mason's output was the 20th 100-yard day of his career and seventh as a Raven. S Dawan Landry led the team with a career-high 12 tackles.

Sunday, October 24, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

S Ed Reed played his first game of the season, intercepting 2 passes, helping the Ravens to a come-from-behind 37-34 overtime victory over the Bills at M&T Bank Stadium. K Billy Cundiff's 38-yard field goal, which was set up by a LB Ray Lewis forced fumble and recovery at the Bills' 45-yard line, gave Baltimore the hard-fought win. The Ravens trailed 17-3 and 24-10 in the first half before exploding for 17 points in 64 seconds to take a 27-24 early-third-quarter lead. TE Todd Heap caught 2 first-half touchdowns from QB Joe Flacco, who completed 16 of 31 for 250 yards. Flacco also threw a 34-yard TD to WR Anquan Boldin after handing the ball to RB Willis McGahee, who flipped it back to the quarterback. The Ravens' defense, which entered the game third in the NFL, allowed 514 yards, the most by an opponent since 2000. QB Ryan Fitzpatrick completed 29 of 43 for 382 yards, including 3 TD passes to WR Lee Evans. WR Steve Johnson, who also caught a TD toss from Fitzpatrick, had 8 receptions for 158 yards. RB Ray Rice (72) and McGahee (64) combined for 136 rushing yards for the Ravens. In the victory, two Ravens eclipsed the 8,000-yard mark: Flacco for passing yards and Boldin for receiving yards. The Ravens improved to 9-0 whenever Reed snags 2 INTs in a game.

Totaling 402 yards on offense while owning the ball 38:22 of the game, the Ravens gave the Dolphins their first road loss of the season, 26-10. Baltimore opened the game with a 7-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a QB Joe Flacco-to-RB Willis McGahee 32-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins followed that with a RB Ronnie Brown 12-yard TD run. Two K Billy Cundiff field goals (26 and 39 yards) gave the Ravens a 13-10 halftime lead. The Ravens dominated the second half and cruised to the victory on a Flacco-to-WR-Derrick Mason 12-yard TD toss and 2 more Cundiff FGs (20 and 24 yards). Baltimore did not punt in the game, but P Sam Koch did complete a first-down pass to CB Cary Williams on fourth-and-10 in the third quarter. RB Ray Rice produced 180 yards (83 rushing and 97 receiving on 7 catches.) Flacco was nearly flawless, completing 20 of 27 for 266 yards with the 2 TD passes (129.6 QB rating). The Ravens' defense limited Miami to 289 yards, which included QB Chad Henne's 22 of 34 for 231 yards and 3-interception performance. S Ed Reed corralled his third INT in just his second game of the season, and McGahee passed the 1,000 receiving yards mark for his career. The Ravens won their seventh straight at home and improved to 3-0 under John Harbaugh coming off the bye (also winning their eighth of nine games after the bye).

GAME 10 • RAVENS 37, PANTHERS 13

Baltimore (7-3) Carolina (1-9)

Sunday, November 21, 2010 • 1:04 PM ET • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte

Fourth-quarter interceptions by long-time Ravens' Pro Bowlers S Ed Reed and LB Ray Lewis secured Baltimore's 37-13 victory at Carolina. Reed's 50th-career interception resulted in a touchdown when he pitched to fellow S Dawan Landry, who sprinted the final 23 yards for a score. On Panthers QB Brian St. Pierre's next throw, Lewis stole the pass and raced 24 yards to the end zone for the game's final points. The Ravens took a 17-3 halftime lead on a QB Joe Flacco 56-yard TD toss to WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, a 22-yard K Billy Cundiff field goal and a 1-yard RB Ray Rice TD plunge. The Panthers came within 7 (20-13) on the second play of the fourth quarter when St. Pierre hit WR David Gettis with an 88-yard TD connection. Once again, Flacco produced a QB rating over 100 – his fourth in the last five games – completing 24 of 33 for 301 yards (110.8 mark). The TD catch by Houshmandzadeh was the 600th of his career, and Mason's third reception was the 900th of his career. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to have three WRs on the active roster with at least 600 career receptions (Mason, Anquan Boldin & Houshmandzadeh). Rice gained 131 total yards: 65 rushing and 66 on 6 receptions. TE Todd Heap added 5 catches for 69 yards.

This time, the Steelers won 13-10 at M&T Bank Stadium on Sunday Night Football to take over first place by one game in the AFC North. Pittsburgh's winning touchdown came with 2:51 left in the contest on a QB Ben Roethlisberger 9-yard throw to RB Isaac Redman. That TD was set up by S Troy Polamalu's strip of Ravens QB Joe Flacco on a second-and-5 on Baltimore's 43-yard line. Polamalu's caused fumble was picked up by LB LaMarr Woodley, who ran it to the Ravens' 9. The Ravens took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin 14-yard TD toss. The teams traded third-quarter field goals – 45 yards by Pittsburgh's Shaun Suisham and 24 by Baltimore's Billy Cundiff. A 19-yard Suisham FG made the score 10-6 in the final period. Flacco finished the game completing 17 of 33 for 266 yards, while Roethlisberger, whose nose was broken during a tackle in the first quarter, was 22-of-38 for 253 yards. Boldin caught 5 passes for 118 yards (his 30th-career 100-yard game) to lead all receivers. Both teams struggled to run, with the Steelers averaging 2.3 yards per rush and the Ravens 2.2 ypr. Baltimore TE Todd Heap left the game after injuring his thigh on the Ravens' first play from scrimmage. The loss broke the Ravens' eight-game home winning streak.

GAME 13 • RAVENS 34, TEXANS 28 (OT)

Baltimore (9-4) Houston (5-8)

Monday, December 13, 2010 • 7:40 PM CT • Reliant Stadium • Houston

Weather: Retractible Roof Closed • Attendance 71,413 • Time 3:19

After taking a 21-0, second-quarter lead, the Ravens had to go into overtime to beat the host Texans, 34-28, last Monday. Baltimore won the game when CB Josh Wilson intercepted QB Matt Schaub 3:05 into OT and raced 12 yards to the end zone. The Ravens scored 3 first-half TDs on a 1-yard RB Willis McGahee run and a pair of QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Derrick Mason TD passes (9 and 26 yards). A 46-yard Schaub-to-WR Andre Johnson score made the halftime margin 21-7. Ravens WR/KOR David Reed opened the second half with a 103-yard kickoff return, the longest in team history, to give Baltimore a 28-7 edge. Two K Neil Rackers' field goals brought Houston within 15 points (28-13) after three quarters. Schaub then hit WR Jacoby Jones (7 yards) and Johnson (5 yards) with fourth-quarter TDs. The latter score came with 21 seconds left in the game and was followed by a Schaub-to-Jones 2-point conversion to tie the contest. Flacco completed 22 of 33 for 235 yards, including 8 passes to RB Ray Rice and 6 to Mason, who hit the 50-catch milestone for the 11th consecutive season of his career. It also marked the first 2-TD game of Mason's Ravens career (2005-10). Flacco became the first Ravens' QB to produce back-to-back 3,000-yard passing seasons.

GAME 14 • RAVENS 30, SAINTS 24

Baltimore (10-4) New Orleans (10-4)

Sunday, December 19, 2010 • 1:03 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 34°, Partly Cloudy, Wind NNW 12 mph • Attendance 71,432 • Time 3:19

The Ravens jumped out to a 21-7, second-quarter lead and held off the defending Super Bowl champion Saints in the fourth quarter to win, 30-24, at M&T Bank Stadium. New Orleans, held to 269 yards, rallied to tie the game at 24 with 11:34 left in the final period. But, the Ravens responded with 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (32 and 27 yards) while holding QB Drew Brees and the Saints' offense scoreless on their final two possessions. RB Ray Rice, who produced his most scrimmage yards (233) in a game in his three-year career, scored 2 of the Ravens' first 3 TDs (10-yard run and 17-yard pass from QB Joe Flacco). Rice rushed 31 times for 153 yards and caught 5 for 80 more. Flacco, who also threw a 34-yard TD pass to rookie TE Ed Dickson (his first-career TD catch) in the first quarter, completed 10 of 20 for 172 yards. DE Cory Redding intercepted Brees' final pass of the game on a ball tipped by DT Haloti Ngata. Brees completed 29 of 46 passes for 267 yards with 3 TDs, while the Saints were held to just 27 rushing yards on 14 attempts. The 27 rushing yards allowed were the fifth-lowest by an opponent in Ravens history. With the victory, the Ravens have won 15 of 16 games against the NFC in Baltimore, including nine straight. The team also improved to 20-2 when rushing for at least 125 yards in the John Harbaugh Era (2008-10).

GAME 15 • RAVENS 20, BROWNS 10

Baltimore (11-4) Cleveland (5-10)

Sunday, December 26, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Cleveland Browns Stadium • Cleveland

Weather: 26°, Cold, Wind Chill 13° NE 18 mph • Attendance 65,028 • Time 2:42

The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Browns, scoring 10 points after 2 of them, in the 20-10 victory at Cleveland. Baltimore intercepted rookie QB Colt McCoy 3 times, 2 by S Ed Reed. Cleveland took a 7-0 lead on a trick play that ended with WR Mohamed Massaquoi throwing a 29-yard touchdown pass to WR Brian Robiskie. The Ravens then grabbed a 13-10 halftime lead on 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (27 and 40 yards) and a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh 15-yard TD toss. (Browns K Phil Dawson converted a 30-yard FG at the end of the second quarter.) After a Cleveland onside kick failed at the start of the second half, the Ravens followed with a second Flacco TD pass – this one for 22 yards to WR Derrick Mason. Flacco completed 12 of 19 for 102 yards, including 4 each to Mason (50 yards) and Houshmandzadeh (32). RB Ray Rice rushed 25 times for 92 hard-earned yards. The Ravens limited RB Peyton Hillis to 35 yards on 12 carries, while holding McCoy to 15-of-29 passing for 149 yards. Flacco became the team's first quarterback to pass for over 10,000 yards, and Mason moved into 12th place on the all-time NFL receiving list with 921 career receptions. Flacco and head coach John Harbaugh became the first rookie head coach starting a rookie QB tandem (in 2008) to earn the playoffs in their initial three seasons together.

GAME 16 • RAVENS 13, BENGALS 7

Baltimore (12-4) Cincinnati (4-12)

Sunday, January 2, 2011 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 51°, Cloudy, Wind NNW 7 mph • Attendance 71,088 • Time 3:00

The Ravens forced 5 turnovers, including 2 S Ed Reed INTs, in the 13-7 victory in the regular season finale. Baltimore took a 6-0 first-half lead on 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (25 and 47 yards). (Cundiff tied the NFL record for most touchbacks – 40 – in the NFL since kickoffs were moved to the 30-yard line in 1994.) The Ravens increased the lead to 13-0 in the third quarter when RB Ray Rice powered 7 yards for a touchdown. The Bengals came back with a fourth-quarter QB Carson Palmer-to-WR Jerome Simpson TD toss (11 yards) with 12:33 left in the game. The Bengals threatened three more times, but the Ravens' defense stepped up to stop Cincy on a fourth-and-1 at the Baltimore 26; then LB Ray Lewis recovered a Palmer fumble on the Ravens' 32; and, finally, the Bengals were stopped on fourth down at the 2-yard line with 16 seconds left in the game. Reed halted a Bengals' drive with an interception in the end zone at the end of the first half. Rice rushed 20 times for 77 yards, while Flacco completed 14 of 19 for 125 yards with 1 INT. Baltimore (25:18) won despite being dominated by the Bengals (34:42) in time of possesion. WR Derrick Mason finished the season with 61 receptions, the 11th straight year he's caught at least 60 passes. Reed's 2 INTs gave him an NFL-high 8, which he tallied in only 10 games after starting the season on the PUP list (hip).

The Ravens beat the host Chiefs, 30-7, in the Wild Card Playoff round at New Arrowhead Stadium. Baltimore's offense set team playoff marks for total yards (390), passing yards (248) and first downs (26), while the defense turned over Kansas City five times, limiting the Chiefs to just 161 yards and 1-of-8 on third down. After taking a 3-0, first-quarter lead, the Ravens fell behind (7-3) on a 41-yard RB Jamaal Charles touchdown sprint. Baltimore took a 10-7 halftime lead when RB Ray Rice caught a 9-yard TD pass from QB Joe Flacco with 19 seconds left in the second quarter. K Billy Cundiff added 2 more FGs (29 and 29 yards), and Flacco threw a 4-yard TD toss to WR Anquan Boldin for a 23-7, third-quarter advantage. RB Willis McGahee added a 25-yard TD run in the fourth quarter for the Ravens' final TD. TE Todd Heap was spectacular, catching a career-high 10 passes (108 yards). DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF • STEELERS 31, RAVENS 24

Saturday, January 15, 2011 • 4:35 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 36°, Cloudy, Wind WSW 17 mph • Attendance 64,879 • Time 3:24

The Ravens had their playoff run stopped in Pittsburgh with a 31-24 loss to the division-rival Steelers. Three third-quarter turnovers proved too costly, and Baltimore couldn't convert a crucial fourth-down pass late in the fourth quarter, sealing the victory for Pittsburgh. After a RB Rashard Mendenhall 1-yard TD run on the Steelers' opening possession, the Ravens scored 21 unanswered points for a 21-7 halftime lead. RB Ray Rice opened the scoring for Baltimore with a 14-yard rushing TD, the third-longest run against Pittsburgh all year. Two plays later, Ben Roethlisberger was dropped by OLB Terrell Suggs, who had 3 sacks, and fumbled. The ball was thought to be an incomplete pass, but no whistle blew, and DE Cory Redding picked up the football and ran untouched into the end zone. The Ravens capitalized on another fumble in the second quarter, when LB Dannell Ellerbe popped Mendenhall on Pittsburgh's 16-yard line, and S Ed Reed recovered. That led to a 4-yard pass from QB Joe Flacco to TE Todd Heap for a score. The Ravens nearly took a fourth-quarter lead when CB/RS Lardarius Webb took a punt 55 yards for a TD, but it was called back by a holding penalty on WR Marcus Smith. Baltimore had to settle for a 24-yard Billy Cundiff FG to knot the score again. Pittsburgh connected for a 58-yard pass play on third-and-19 late in the fourth, which led to the game-winning TD.

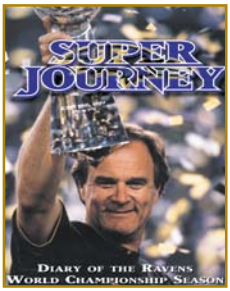
HISTORY

NOTES



The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the NY Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another a new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday presented phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Kevin Byrne and Francine Lubera of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season (above), published in July of 2001.

12/23 - Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

9/30 - Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nailbiter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, and the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The Executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. 9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and two TDs. 1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell.Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the Smartvision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier shutout on Nov. 26, 27-0, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' defense dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a bye week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks (60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed was a franchise record and second in the NFL to the Colts' 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

1/17 - Head coach Brian Billick signed a new four-year contract with the Ravens. Defensive coordinator Rex Ryan signed a new two-year deal with the team.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first – and just the third head coach in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

1/23 - Cam Cameron, head coach of the Dolphins in 2007, was hired to be the Ravens' new offensive coordinator by John Harbaugh.

1/28 - Rex Ryan was retained as defensive coordinator and also named the team's assistant head coach by John Harbaugh.

4/17 - QB Steve McNair retired from football after a 13-year NFL career.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' bye week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18 consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' four INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only seven during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high nine INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/21 - Rex Ryan, Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 and a member of the coaching staff since 1999, was hired by the New York Jets as their head coach.

1/26 - Having served as LBs coach in 2008, Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator. Also, special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg earned the title of assistant head coach.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' defense finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-consecutive season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (three INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its four turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and two TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/31 - The NFL held its annual Pro Bowl in South Florida, an honor five Ravens earned: LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and RB Ray Rice (first).

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs in each of the last three seasons (2008-10).

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco set a Ravens' season mark with his 93.6 QB rating and established career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

1/9 - In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons. Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons.

In the victory, the Ravens set franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff game records with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a franchise postseason-record 115.4 passer rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three NFL seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

1/30 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2010 Pro Bowlers, five Ravens earned All-Star honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth).

1/19 - Becoming the team's fifth defensive coordinator ever, Chuck Pagano was promoted from secondary coach after Greg Mattison left to coach at the University of Michigan.

2/14 - Harbaugh and the Ravens agreed to a contract extension (with terms undisclosed).

The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who has worn both 73 and 97 jerseys.

ABBREVIATION CHART

To media members: In an effort to make the Baltimore Ravens Fan and Media Guide reader friendly, to "green" the book, to lessen the total weight of the book and reduce the number of pages, we adopted some non-traditional methods. We abbreviated certain football terms and used numbers for statistics in our player bios and charts instead of spelling out numerical words, including numbers 1-9.

Note: Tackles are not an official statistic recognized by the NFL. From 1996-2010, Ravens tackles were tallied by the coaching staff after reviewing game film. Beginning in 2011, tackles will reflect press box stats crew counts.

GAME DAY

NOTES

M&T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL excitement begins on any given Sunday. Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since winning the Super Bowl in 2000, the Ravens have presented a daunting home record for opponents, 65-23, the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.739) entering 2011.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including the stunning new-in-2010 high definition RavensVision video screens. Combined with exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure is the home of the Ravens and draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park and the Ravens' home at Camden Yards. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

VIDEO SCREENS:

• Each RavensVision high definition screen, which were added in 2010, measures 24 feet high and 100 feet wide. Those dimensions would equal a 1,234-inch diagonal TV screen. It would take 600 37-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) boards. Nearly 2.5 million individual LEDs provide the image on the two screens, allowing the highest quality pictures in the brightest sunlight and at night events.

• The high definition views allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

• Each of the two giant screens is made up of modular LED panels – 12.6 inches by 15.1 inches. These panels were then assembled into larger sections measuring 8 by 9 feet. Each section weighs 900 pounds, and there are 33 sections on each board.

• A control room that allows the high def boards to work at peak quality was designed by VPC and installed at M&T Bank Stadium by Diversified Systems, the U.S. industry leader in the construction and installation of control rooms.

• The Ravens and the Maryland Stadium Authority shared the costs of the boards.

• Added in 2010 were the more than 500 Sony flat screen, high definition televisions, which were installed throughout M&T Bank Stadium to enhance the fans' game day experience.

• Providing even more information to fans are LED boards (800 linear feet) surrounding the field.

SIGHTLINES:

• Front row seating in the lower level is six feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

• The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, allowing scenic views of Baltimore.

SEATING:

• With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park's size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.

• The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.

• Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES:

• Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.

• There are 55 concession stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites.

• Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE:

• Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

• Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B.

• Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but downtown parking garages are also available for game-day parking, just a short walk away.

• Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all of the lots in the complex. For complete Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE (7283).

• In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

• Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens' football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland the NFL World Championship with Super Bowl XXXV.

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 230 musicians and flagline performers comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/band.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 21 members on the dance team and 39 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and co-ed stunt team. Ravens cheerleaders are in our community helping raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. Scheduling an appearance for your next event is easy: visit www.baltimoreravens.com/cheerleaders.

LIVE RAVENS

The Ravens' live mascots, Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

On May 6, 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced their partnership, which included a 15-year, $75 million agreement with naming rights to the Ravens' home field, M&T Bank Stadium, as well as several important community-based programs that are jointly administered.

At the announcement, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said: "We knew from the onset that we did not want a company that wasn't established and without a great track record. There were other banks that we were calling about naming rights, because that was the category we wanted to fill, but the timing was perfect [with M&T] because they were coming in to a new market [Maryland]."

M&T Bank's long history began in western New York, but the company has expanded throughout the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches in the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 153 years ago and is one of the 20 largest commercial bank corporations in the nation.

The partnership is deeply rooted in the idea of community service. M&T Bank became the lead sponsor of the Ravens All Community Team, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leaders to support our community in meaningful ways. This support includes fundraising, volnteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of its most pressing needs.

"M&T Bank's relationship with the Ravens goes far beyond our name on the stadium," said Mark Czarnecki, president of M&T Bank. "M&T and the Ravens have become community partners, working together to strengthen communities through a variety of initiatives. Employees from the two organizations work side-by-side as volunteers renovating homes, distributing food to the hungry and building neighborhood playgrounds. M&T Bank is proud to be the official bank of the Ravens, and we're proud to be part of the fabric of the community."

M&T Bank also sponsors Honor Rows, a program that salutes those who provide outstanding service and the nationally-renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information about this community service, log on to www.baltimoreravens.com.
